

Activities of Entrepreneurship Development Club 2014-15

Committee

Dr Julie P. Lazar, Asst. Prof., Dept. of Economics (Coordinator)

Ms Liji Maliakkal, Asst. Prof., Dept. of Economics

Bindhya Suresh , I BA Economics, Student Representative

Activities

Organized a demonstration class on ornament making. Blessy Vadakkan ,III Sem BA Economics gave a demonstration class on making of different types of ornaments on 24-09-2014.

Student representatives of ED Club visited Startup Village, Kakkanad, Kochi with the staff and students of the Computer Science Department on 4th December 2014. The representatives are Anu N.S, Sruthi Sukumaran and Surya Pauly of III BA Economics

In collaboration with Economics Association, Club organized Card Designing Competition on 17th December 2014. 17 students prepared Christmas cards and the prizes were awarded to winners

A demonstration class on flower making and arrangement by Ms Ceena Nixon was arranged on 19-01-2015.

To encourage entrepreneurship and also as part of the policy of earn while you learn the Economics Association and ED Club of the College jointly organized an exhibition cum sale of handworks of students on 23rd January 2015. The exhibition gave an opportunity for students of various departments to sell the items prepared by them. The items included dry flowers, artificial flowers, ornaments, fabric painting, glass painting and so on.

Entrepreneurial Development Club and Department of Management Studies together organized an interdepartmental innovative program 'QUICK SELL' on 2nd February, 2015. This competition was related with presenting advertisements for various products. There were eight teams of 4 each from different departments. Students are effectively participated in the programme. The first and second prize was bagged by students of BA Economics and third prize was won by students of M Com.

Five club members attended National Seminar on Women in Creative Industry at Vimala College, Thrissur on 13 Feb 2015.