

Archaeology Club 2018-19

Teacher in charge : Mimi K M

Student co ordinator:Fincy Francis

As the part of activities of the Archaeology club,students of History Department were taken to Thipunithura Hill palace, Kerala's first heritage museum located in Ernakulam district. This official residence of the Cochin royal family built in the year 1865 was designed in the Kerala's architectural style.

- Students were also taken to Mattancheri Jewish Synagogue, India's oldest functioning synagogue, and Jewish cemetery and Jewish street.

Students of History Department went to archaeological exhibition conducted at paramekkavu agrasala by heritage society loving people. stamp and coins of different periods, and different countries along with old house hold utensils and agricultural tools and weapons were exhibited.

