

Archaeology Club 2020-21

1.

Royal Palaces and forts of Kerala were introduced to the students of Archaeology Club by faculty of our department Ms Vandana on 2nd November 2020 through google Meet. Session dealt important palaces like Padmanabapuram palace, Thrippunithura Hill palaces, Mattanchery and Arakkal palaces. History behind its construction ,architectural styles, Its present roles as museum were explained. Important forts like Bekal, Palakkad, St. Angelo were also discussed with the students.

2.

Archaeology club conducted a Video Presentation competition Know your Family antique on January 20th 2021. Students presented a video introducing the family antiques like Kedavilakku, Jewelry box, Grama phone, Thooku vilakku, Granary etc. Participants explained relation of antique to the culture, reasons for its disappearance etc.

KNOW OUR FAMILY ANTIQUE
COMPETITION BY ARCHAEOLOGY CLUB

75th
JUBILEE YEAR

- Video presentation introducing Family antique in 5 minutes should sent to history.dept@smctsr.ac.in -Details must include name of antique, its relation to culture, use, reasons for its disappearance etc.
- Antique can be selected from family surrounding
- Last date of submission January 20th 2021
- Cash Prizes will be awarded to the winners
- For any queries please contact-9447969055

Smt. Jiji Francis E
Head of the History Department
St. Marys College, Thrissur

First Prize

Alpha Mary-I BA History

Second Prize

Megha Ram Mohan -I B A History

Uses of gramophone

- The first use of gramophone records the exact science was in a rather premature attempt to analyse the physical nature of vowel sounds.
- Gramophone records were the primary technology used for personal music reproduction.

III Prize

Sreya Sasi (I BA History)