

Programme Specific Outcome: B.A English Language and Literature

- Enable students to communicate in a professional way using various communication strategies
- Equip students with effective training in mechanics and conventions of academic and research writing
- Help students develop acumen to read, appreciate and discuss literature and its ramification at various levels
- Help students understand different characteristics of literature and culture of the period and develop an interest in the knowledge of the literary production of the age