

Programme Specific Outcome

B Com

- After completing three years for Bachelors in Commerce (B.Com) programme, students would gain a thorough grounding in the fundamentals of Commerce.
- The course is designed to provide students with a wide range of managerial skills and understanding in streams like finance, accounting, taxation and management.
- With the increasing trend of e-commerce this course has got a great scope in the field of both commerce and software.