

Programme Specific Course

M Com

- The M.com.in finance programme is structured to produce post graduates in commerce with specialized skills and applied competence in theoretical and practical knowledge of standard practices in finance
- At the end of this programme students transform into Commerce professionals with specialized research skills catering to the contemporary needs of industry and academia
- This course also provides student-centric learning ambience backed with critical thinking and problem solving capabilities.