

College Level Seminar on
'Research Methodology in Social Sciences'

17-1-2018

Organized by: Department of Economics

Department of Economics organized a one day College Level Seminar on 'Research Methodology in Social Sciences' on 17-1-2018. The first technical session on the topic 'Social Science Research -Myths and Challenges' was presented by Dr Mani K P, Prof, XIME, Kochi Formerly Prof and HOD, Dept. of Economics, University of Calicut. Dr Mani gave a detailed account of the Research trends in Social Science especially in field of economics and management. He elaborated in detail the various steps in research as part of project presentation for UG and PG. Dr Julie P Lazar welcomed the gathering and Ms. Jaimol Kolengaden, VI sem BA Economics student delivered the vote of thanks.

The second Technical Session Statistical tools for Social Science Research was handled by Rasin R S, Asst Prof, Dept. of Statistics, St Thomas College, Thrissur. He explained the various statistical tools applicable in social science research, its relevance in solving various problems were also discussed at length. Ms. Rakhi Chandran, faculty Dept. of Statistics welcomed the gathering and Ms. Ajanaarfa VI sem BA Economics student delivered vote of thanks. 140 students attended the seminar.

