

WORKSHOP ON BREEDING OF FISHES FOR AQUACULTURE

11/7/2018

Organised by: Department of Zoology

Session I-Aquatic Pollution and Remediation

Session II: Breeding of Fishes for Aquaculture

Dr. Moncey Vincent (Asst. Professor Sacred Heart College, Thevara) delivered a talk on the topic “Aquatic pollution’ for the students on 11/7/2018. The talk was inaugurated by Dr. Regi Raphael (Head of Dept. of Botany). The class detailed the importance of environment day celebration. It dealt in detail with the current scenario of pollution existing in the world and the action for the protection of our environment The students following the talk promised to keep environment free from pollution.

