

National Seminar on Inclusion and Exclusion with special reference to the Children with Learning Disability

29th June 2019

Organised by: Department of Social Work

The department of Social Work organized a seminar on “Inclusion and Exclusion with special reference to the Children with Learning Disability” on 29th June 2019 at St Mary’s College, Thrissur. The one day seminar was held at the national level. Sr Jorzalin George, Head of Department of Social Work welcomed the gathering. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Sr. Magie Jose, Principal of St Mary’s College, Thrissur. Fr Amal Doss A., Social Work Practitioner in North East India led the first session for the participants on the topic, “Social Inclusion and Exclusion in India”.

Following the session, Ms Princy, mother of a special need child shared her experiences with the audience. There were paper presentations from various colleges including the host college on related topics. Mr. V V Joseph, Founder and Director of ALDI discussed the topic, “Learning Disability” in the afternoon session. As a part of the national seminar, the department had arranged an exhibition on the main topic of the seminar at the same venue. 10 faculties and 150 students from different colleges participated in the seminar. Sr Jorzalin George delivered vote of thanks for the audience and the programme was winded up by 4.30 pm.